PURPOSE

Continuous improvement is an essential component of operating a training and assessment system that meets or exceeds defined quality standards.

DGT is committed to providing high quality training and assessment that is relevant to clients, employers and industry and meets the requirements of the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Standards'). DGT is required to systematically monitor, evaluate and improve its training and assessment practices through continuous improvement practices.

The object of this policy is to provide a mechanism for DGT to systematically and continually review and improve its systems and practices (including policies and procedures), as well as training and assessments products and services to meet compliance with the Standards.

POLICY STATEMENT

DGT is committed to the continuous improvement of its training and assessment system, strategies and practices, products and resources to ensure ongoing quality delivery and compliance with the Standards.

DGT Employment and Training will:

- implement and maintain strategies and practices to systematically monitor its compliance with the Standards;
- review and evaluate its training and assessment strategies and practices (using various processes) including those offered by a third party;
- utilise the outcomes of all monitoring and evaluative processes to inform and continually improve training and assessment strategies and practices.

POLICY PRINCIPLES

UNDERPINNING PRINCIPLES

- Continuous improvement approach is systematic, involves staff, clients and other stakeholders, and uses qualitative and quantitative data to determine the need for improvement to the RTO's services, operations, practices and systems.
